

I and my immediate family oppose weakening Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law that is challenged by the Consumer Bankers Association. I really enjoy not getting interrupted during a meal or family conversation by telemarketers. If I do get interrupted, all I do is make rude comments and hang up on them.